London, March 1.

Yesterday came in a Mail from Holland.

Rome, February 17.

LAST Week the Pope caused all the Curates and Preachers of this City to be summoned to the Palace, where he exhorted them carefully to perform their Duty in preaching during Lent. Cardinal Zandedari arrived here some Days ago from Nettuno, and delivered a great Packet to Cardinal Paolucci, Secretary of State, in which were Letters from his Brother now Great Master of Malta, to notify to the Pope his Election to that Dignity. The said Cardinal has been desired by Sig. Beluga, Bishop of Cartagena, to deliver to the Pope an Instrument, whereby he resigns the red Cap lately conferred upon him; but Cardinal Zandedari has refused to accept of that Commission, and is rather endeavouring to persuade that Prelate to keep that Dignity. It is believed here, that Sig. Beluga has made this Step to ingratiate himself with the Court of Spain, which is displeased at his Promotion. The King of Poland is highly commended here for his Generosity towards Cardinal Salerne, his Confessor, to whom he has made a Present of 60000 Florins, with a yearly Pension of 1000 Florins, the better to support the Splendour of the Purple. Though the said Cardinal at first shewed some Reluctancy to accept of the Purple, yet he has since yielded to the Instances of the Pope and his Friends, and accordingly set up a fine Equipage suitable to his Birth and present Rank.

Vienne, Feb. 24. On the 18th Instant, the Emperor put with his own Hand the red Cap transmitted hither from Rome, on the Heads of Sig. Spinola the Pope's Nuncio, and of Count Althan Bishop of Vaccaia. This was done with great Solemnity in the Church of the Court. Yesterday arrived an Express from Constantinople, with Dispatches for the Turkish Ambassadors here. He reports, that the contagious Distempers which reigned there for some time past do cease at present. He also brought an Account, that on the 15th of January the Foundry at Constantinople was set on Fire, whereby the Building with all the Materials and Stores belonging to it were destroyed, and several Cannon newly cast, melted; the Flames were like to have spread, and occasioned greater Damage, had it not been for the Care of the Grand Vizier, the Captain Bassaw, and the Aga of the Janizaries, who went in Person to give the necessary Orders for extinguishing the Fire.

Brussels, March 4. On the 29th past the Regiment of Dragoons of Vehlen being drawn up in one of the Market-Places, the Fiscal of Brabant, the Procurator-General, and one of the Magistrates of this Place, went to the Steeple of the Church of St. John, where the Archives of the Nations or Guilds are kept, to take out from thence the Originals of three Decrees which the Council of Brabant were forced by the Populace to issue in the time of the Tumult of 1718. The Deans which were banished some time ago, having taken with them the Keys to the said Archives, the Doors were broken open, and the said Originals carried to the City Council, where they were torn by the Door-Keeper. Some Mob appeared with a Design to oppose it, but were kept in Aw by the Regular Forces.

Paris, March 6. Since the Arrêt was published, by which People are allowed to keep by them 500 Livres in Specie, the Bank is crowded daily with Persons who demand Money for Bank Notes of that Sum or under. The India Company having resolved to turn 10 Millions of their Stock into Annuities, at 2 per Cent. per Annum, have declared by an Affiche, that they will take the old Actions at 2000, the Submissions or new Actions at 1400, and the Primes at Par, for the Purchase of such Annuities. Since the last General Assembly of the India Company, Stocks have fallen, though the contrary was expected: It is rumoured, the Directors are contriving new Schemes for raising them.

Hague, March 8. Letters from Cologne and other parts of Germany say the Election of Maximilian has had several Apopleckic Fits, and that his Life is thought to be in Danger. It is advised from Warsaw of the 23d past, that on that Day the Diet broke up, the King of Poland being unwilling to restore the entire Command of the Army to the Great Generals of the Crown and of Lithuania; which was insisted upon by the greater part of the Deputies.

London, March 1.
